

Litigation

Our trial attorneys represent a diverse array of businesses and individuals in connection with all types of complex commercial and individual disputes. We draw upon decades of trial experience to develop efficient, assertive, and practical litigation strategies.

From early case evaluation through mediation, arbitration, trial, and appeals, our trial attorneys execute litigation strategies designed to protect our clients' interests and achieve their business objectives. We are dedicated, effective, and persuasive advocates in and out of the courtroom with the multi-jurisdictional state and federal court expertise to advise clients at each stage of the litigation process. We have represented clients in complex business and commercial disputes, contract disputes, shareholder disputes, labor and employment litigation, non-compete and trade-secret litigation, securities litigation, fiduciary litigation, construction disputes, probate disputes, and real estate and condemnation matters.
