

Estate & Trust Administration

Our attorneys advise trustees, executors and beneficiaries on all phases of estate and trust administration. We represent clients in court and before taxing authorities, as well as advise on the many aspects of fiduciary law. We constructively resolve disagreements between beneficiaries and fiduciaries, as well as assist clients with probate and the post-death administration of revocable trusts.

Our attorneys understand what it takes to navigate clients beyond the complexities and obstacles inherent in the estate and trust administration process. We combine legal expertise with personal sensitivity to the emotional challenges that arise when consolidating, valuing, liquidating, administering and transferring assets.
